

Odd Socks Day

‘Odd Socks Day’ marks the start of Anti-Bullying Week and will take place on Monday 16th November. This day is all about embracing, celebrating and respecting everyone and recognising we are all different and unique in our own way (hence the odd socks!).

During Anti-Bullying Week, the children will be taking part in various activities to raise awareness of bullying so they know what they can do if they feel they are being bullied or someone they know is. We will also be taking time to promote kindness and respect.

To celebrate ‘Odd Socks Day’, the children may come into school wearing non-uniform and odd socks if they can.

ANTI-BULLYING ALLIANCE

Odd Socks Day

‘Odd Socks Day’ marks the start of Anti-Bullying Week and will take place on Monday 16th November. This day is all about embracing, celebrating and respecting everyone and recognising we are all different and unique in our own way (hence the odd socks!).

During Anti-Bullying Week, the children will be taking part in various activities to raise awareness of bullying so they know what they can do if they feel they are being bullied or someone they know is. We will also be taking time to promote kindness and respect.

To celebrate ‘Odd Socks Day’, the children may come into school wearing non-uniform and odd socks if they can.

ANTI-BULLYING ALLIANCE